My dear friend Jack Ruby:

My dear sweet Jack Ruby:
 I grieve me for writing again but I saw this birthday card which I felt sure would please you and so I sent it. I had a grown cat just like this white John Marquis once had. She was like a dog when it came to sitting alone beside me when I decided to be here with god. When he left the go out on his freight train then to Comstockland.
 I am a little thing. In seven, when you

My goodness, one thing for seven, when you are free again (looks like it may be soon) every time you see a friend, he eat you with his doubt think of the name Virville Harmon.

[illegible]

my heart out - my sweet beloved papa gone - the dear person who had always been my full moral support, who had taken my part against the world and had done so much for me & loved so kind. The last Sunday in April, I believe it was, in 1962, as we parted after my visit with him & Ma - he cried as he said he wished I didn't have to live alone & far away (12 miles), at that time there was a small gang of teen age rock throwers who went around breaking windows at night. I'm sure I'd without cause
- only for fun or sport, kids they called it. I had a storm window in back broken several times & finally Grandd let up. Papa wrote to the Chief of Police here. I didn't stop them.
Then little Papa, he cared about me. He thought the same as I do 1965 I'm sure. I'm sure to anyone, I guess the rock throwers moved away or perhaps they are engaged in bigger criminal activities.
There are a lot of stone rubbish in this area. The rubbish men the stone reject & look up. The employees & customers too in this big are storage vault, looks like that would give people bad colds.

I was happy to hear over my radio last Friday 6th April that you were there and that morning then just sometimes.
Sometimes I can't keep back the tears as I think of what you are enduring. I know that in your sorrow, I have those times of a day for you to be left alone. I know it means a lot.

I enclose another air mail envelope as you may not already have one. Write to me when you want. I'll be sure I don't forget me. I would be awfully disappointed if you did. I have faith in you and I care. Whatever you do, please be sure to write to me. I will be surprised to hear over the radio that you are free when this card ends.

The Radio's Count down would be that someone mother wisely train.
She sure carried some beautiful magnificent circumstances if I allowed me to stay at the trip.

I didn't intend to write anything sad. You write on trial for your precious life and make a second letter. Your beautiful letter & your story of what's like has inspired you to live & I feel that you are no closer to the end. I studied some. I was white in College & know I know what you're - out of mind - I don't know what you're in mind. I don't know what you're doing, but I know you're not alone.

WHY didn't the President develop a cold that morning? Why wasn't it raining so his car's protective bubble top would be in place? Why wasn't there even some international emergency that would have kept him in the White House? Why did he have to change his route through Dallas? Why? Why was President Kennedy murdered?

Why was Lee Oswald on the loose that morning when he had been recognized by so many as having Marxist tendencies, an international background, a paranoid personality and a dangerous hostility towards authority? Why wasn't he seen carrying a gun, or noticed meandering around the route of the President's motorcade?

There are, of course, simple answers to those questions but they cannot bring back the President, nor can they even begin to explain why a man who symbolized to an almost unique degree the hopes and dreams of America should be cut down in the bloom of his manhood by an armed madman.

Viewed merely as the unfortunate act of a gun-toting maniac, President Kennedy's death would be an unrelieved tragedy. But there is something deep in the human heart that forbids us to believe ourselves to be playthings of Fate, and there is the Faith, the Faith in God and in God's Providence, that assures the believer that God's eye is upon us and His ear attentive to us in all our ways, and that there is a reason, a reason sometimes beyond our comprehension, but a marvellous and good reason why He permits what may seem to us even the most meaningless horror.

National soul searching

In the atmosphere of agony, grief and frustration that followed in the wake of the President's death there began, spontaneously, a national examination of conscience. The most prominent men in the country instinctively thought of the moral breakdown that seems to be going on apace among us. They spoke openly and bluntly about the hate, dishonesty, violence and domestic infidelity that are clearly a part of contemporary America. They condemned extremism in all its forms, malicious gossip and the crude, irrelevant and dangerously sensationalist character of some of the reporting in the American press.

A friendly little note

Dear Mr. Baby,

May 9, 1967

I have been following your case from the beginning and I want you to know how nearly like you must have felt that day - I also felt. I know a you did the same operation. I would have done the same thing to that deplorable Lee Oswald. I deserved just exactly what you gave him. I saw the actual shooting on TV that day and when you hit him I felt on the floor and begged God to make him die. I know that wasn't right but that's the way I felt about this whole business. I am pregnant with my fourth child due within the next few weeks and all at once I feel I am going to have him after our blood president.
I don't think anything has ever touched me the way this whole thing

1505

Sincerely Love

I am praying every day for your agitation and sincerity to leave you should be acquitted it is fast as I am concerned, you should be thanked for letting that come just now when you were at home and wanting to be there. I am just thankful to know that there are still enough people left in the hard hearted world of ours to really care when a terrible thing like this assassination takes place.

Show the show you a little to know that many people are on your side of the thing.

Much luck always. Take care and try not to let the get you too depressed. Can only imagine how you feel at the moment.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Ruby,

At such a crucial time in your life I want you to know you are not alone in your desire that the twelve people in Dallas will be aware of your innocence.

The person whose life you took committed more than murder. He took from this nation the finest example of what this nation stands for. He took the life of a man devoted to goodness both for his country and his family. When he was despicably shot down, millions felt outrage because they knew the loss of John F. Kennedy was a loss in progress for the good of all.

This outrage made many insane. People almost everywhere wanted a chance to destroy he that so wantonly took our President's life. The only way you differed from others, was that you had the opportunity. Had you not been there that day, somewhere somehow he would have been killed. There were too too many people against him.

For those who argue you committed the same crime as the President's assassin, they need only recall the loss they suffered last November. The nature of the loss was such that it made you, as others, so insane that correct reasoning was lost for a time.

Again, I hope the jury, as well as people everywhere, will realize this. And that you, perhaps just a little more than others, realized the man John F. Kennedy was, and shall always be remember as.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Ruby,

We are a group of boys at Nome, Alaska. We were talking this evening about condemnation. You probably know what this means, but for us younger fellows this word is hard for us to understand. The reason we are interested in this word is because in Romans 8:1 it says, "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus.....". The Bible tells us that we are all condemned to the because of SIN. Not just you, if you are proven guilty but all of us. We are glad to know and mention that God is willing to forgive all of us of our crimes or sins and we'll never have to pay the punishment that we deserve, because Jesus has already paid it all. The Bible says "How shall we escape if we neglect so GREAT SALVATION..." Hebrews 2:1. The Bible also says "Neither is their salvation in any other, for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we MUST be saved." Acts 4:12. We are very glad that Jesus paid the price for our sins on Calvary and now we can have hope by believing in Him. Won't you believe?

Sincerely,

Dear Friend:-

Just received your answer to my letter, written to you while I lived in H. North. I want you to know that I'm praying that God in his infinite love will help you during this time of your travail. I had the 23rd Psalm and you will not fear anything.

I failed to state before that I am a licensed Baptist minister. I hope to be in Dallas in the near future and if you would like I'll come see you and read a few words of scripture.

Just know that God will take care of his own. Just trust in Christ and nothing can hurt. My prayers are with you and I feel like God will take care of everything.

Before a new one and until I hear from you, I'll say, May the Lord bless you in my prayers. Milton Swope

 DID YOU KILL LEE HARVEY OS-

Why Are You Offended ?

A young man looks upon a lovely young lady; her ways, looks, and character entices him to desire her. Out of the love of his heart he woos her - sometimes with sweet messages from his soul - sometimes with a gift. Although his gifts are not perfect: it may be a 10 cent gift, but it's not the price of the gift that counts it's the fact the love from the very depth of his soul has been expressed. Later on he gives her other gifts wooing her on to love him. If she is a faithful and appreciative lady she will appreciate each and every individual gift that is bestowed upon her, her unbiased, wholehearted acceptance of these gifts without reservations, makes her more worthy for him. Out of the rivers of love from his heart he floods his Love One with other gifts as time goes by; Her whole hearted acceptance of all he has to offer Proves her worthy as his Bride. Then on Some Great Day out of Jealousy and zeal for her he snatches her up for his Bride with fear someone will steal his precious one from him. She brings forth offspring to and for him, and he is the head of the household. She accepts all he has to offer - if he has poverty and happiness, riches and sadness or what ever it is she accepts it unbiased without reservations. This is symbolic of a type of church bringing forth offspring to the Lord and the Lords faithful Bride.

Another young man sees a lovely looking young lady and woos her with love from the depth of his soul, with sweet words. Outwardly she acts as tho she accepts his sweetness but inwardly she dislikes this and that of his sweet words. He woos her with gifts, one she likes another she dislikes. As time goes on she is flooded with his love and gifts, but she dislikes almost everything he has to offer now and she is willing to accept some gifts and others she is offended at. When he accepts her as his bride and she brings forth offspring she is rebellious and she teaches disrespect to her offspring; who are offended on ever hand at the head of the household. She has not and does not accept all good things unbiased and without reservations - a contemptuous winch, she turns out to be unworthy, unfaithful and undeserving to receive his inheritance. This is symbolic of an unfaithful church who becomes offended at the messages, love, gifts, and mercy of a True and Living God who Created them in the beginning, Whos Mercy Abounds Forever Amen. She doesn't accept all the gifts, God - G A V E - her, unbiased without reservations; she finds faults with this gift and that gift Until the Potency of the Message is Lost - As she is Lost, L O S T.

Then the third young man seeks his bride in like manner. His words of love disgust his would be bride, the more gifts given her the more disgust she shows and the more offended she becomes with his expressions of love to her. So finally she says to herself, "I have him wrapped around my little finger and no matter how I treat him he will always come back for more punishment." So she goes whoring after other men until she becomes a plain old filthy prostitute only deserving of total rejection. So she never becomes a bride and never brings forth offspring to her true lover. This is symbolic of the church that cleaves to her lover partly but worships idols and places all her hopes in idols.

Now when the Perfect One Comes, Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ of Nazareth, Which one of these Brides or Churches do you suppose He will choose? Since He is Perfect He will accept Only that which is Perfect: The - First - Bride Because she was faithful in all things. Jesus in like manner will snatch His Bride up to keep His Bride from being deceived and tempted by the deceiver, or become the devils bride with his church.

The First Bride represents the church that worships the True and Living God, The Majestic One of Israel, The Holy Creator of the Universe.

The second is the church that calls on the Lord with their lips but their hearts are far from Him- Who denies His Power, Who denies the Gifts of the Holy Spirit and the Power thereof. The idle god worshiper.

The third church represents the one that worships the idol god and places all their hope in a dead graven image and dead saints.

Now when we witness to one person and ask him to take this Bible - Do this Now Please- Go get a Bible now and take it in your hands also: Now Accept this Bible and all it has to say and offer from the depth of your heart. Take Careful notice Now My Love-- "You Have Eternal Life in My Hands Now!" "You also Now Possess Eternal Life!" In John 1, 14 Jesus is the word (Gospel). John 3, 36 And he who believes on - has faith in, clings to, relies on - the Son has (Now Possesses) Eternal Life. But whoever disobeys - is unbelieving toward, refuses to trust in, disregards, is not subject to - the Son will never see (experience) life, But instead the Wrath of God abides on him - God's displeasure remains on him; His indignation hangs over him continually. John 5, 24 I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, the person whose ears are open to my words- who listens to my message- and believes and trusts in and clings to and relies on Him Who sent me has (Now Possesses) Eternal Life: And he does not come into judgment- does not incur sentence of judgement, will not come under condemnation- but he has already passed over out of death into life. (You're ready for Glory - - My Friend- Hallelujah Hallelujah) (Glory To God in the Highest Now and Forever More, and Forever More Amen)

John 6, 47 I assure you, I most solemnly tell you, he who believes in Me - who adheres to, trust in, relies on and has faith in Me - has (Now Possesses) Eternal Life. (Glory to God in the Highest now and Forever More) John 6, 54 He who feeds on My Flesh (Gospel) and drinks My Blood (Spirit) has (Possesses Now) Eternal Life; And I will raise him up (from the dead) on the last day. (Glory to God in the Highest Now and Forever More)

To one type of person when Witnessed to will accept all the Gospel without reservations, wholehearted, and unbiased. He would be a member of the first type of church mentioned (Regardless of his denomination).

To another type of church or person witnessed to they say I believe this but I don't believe that. So my Brother, Tear that page out and lay it over to one side. Then you come to another page and gift you don't like tear that page out also and put it with the other. While you're at it tear them all out you don't like and lay them together; Now when you are finished look at the stack of each of them. O... M Y Love, Get Ready - A part of the Bible will condemn you to H E I L But - A l l of it will give you Eternal Life. Look at the two stacks - they are separate- You don't have the Gospel, only a part of It. It takes all of it to be the Gospel. Why - are - you - offended? What PERFECT GIFT that God (Your Creator) has G I V E N - You are you Offended at? Can you accept only part of Him? "NO". John 3, 5 Jesus answered, I assure you, Most solemnly I tell you, Except a man be born of water and (even) the Spirit, he can not (ever) enter the Kingdom of God. Matthews 4, 4 But He replied, It has been written, man shall not live and be upheld and sustained by bread alone, but by E-V-E-R-Y word that comes forth from the mouth of God. (The whole Gospel). This type of person says "We have a church covenant - this is what we believe in". My Dearly Beloved the Jews had a church covenant also- Look where they are. You can cover your ceiling, inside walls floor, roof and outside walls with covenants and they won't get you O-N-E foot off the ground.

That is your hand writing on the wall. Take that thing down quickly, My Love, and hang the Bible, Gospel, Word, there and let that be Your Belief and Covenant. This person is symbolic of the second type of church mentioned.

Then we witness to a third-person, the third type of church. He says "I don't live by that book, that Gospel, we have one of our own we have written". "We live by it". - My D-a-a-r L-o-v-e you do not: Do Not have the Gospel.

Some four or five years ago as I was sleeping I had my First Real Spiritual Experience. I dreamed I was sitting in my living room in a chair, suddenly an erect Pillow of Radiant Bright, Pure Light, apparently translucent, Light appeared before me. Brighter than anything we know of or ever have seen on earth. I called to my wife "This is the Light come get into the light." I got up out of my chair and got totally and completely into the light." Suddenly things began to happen, things I never have seen or experienced in all my life. Complete Joy swept my soul and immediately I began to shout praising and glorifying God. Saying "Glory to God, Halleluiah, Halleluiah!" Suddenly I became limber as a damp cloth and fell flat on my face on the floor - feeling no pain what so ever. It seemed as tho I woke up shortly and terrifically amazed at the experience - for the first time in my life of 30 some years I felt the full joy of my Salvation. I set up in bed, leaned against the head of the bed just enjoying the full tranquility of Heavenly Rest - and for the first time knowing and understanding how to have Heavenly Peace on the earth Now.

If you accept all the gospel then you, in like manner, are in the Light. John 3, 19 The (basis of the ) judgement (indictment, the test by which men are judged, the grounds for the sentence) lies in this: that the Light is come into the world, and people have loved the darkness rather than and more than the Light, for their works (deeds) were evil. 20 For every wrongdoer hates (loathes, detests) the Light and will not come out into the Light, but shrinks from it, lest his works - his deeds, his activities, his conduct - be exposed and reproved. 21 But he who practises truth - who does what is right - comes out into the Light; so that his works may be plainly shown to be what they are, wrought with God - divinely prompted, done with God's help, in dependence upon Him. You are an example of the perfect bride.

If you accept only part of the Gospel you have only one a foot, leg, head, arm or only part of your body in the Light; Jump up quickly, My Brother, and accept all the Gospel and plunge all the way in the Light.

If you have a book of your own, you are a type of the third church. You are not even in the Light at all; and you know what to do without Hesitation.

Now if you will not accept my witness of the Light in the 20 th Century the only one that has been any closer to the Light, will have to come from Heaven who lives with the Light; or either the Light Itself. I will have to come witness to you. John 13, 20 I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, He who receives a nd welcomes and takes into his heart any messenger of Mine, receives Me (in just that way); and he who receives and welcomes and takes Me into his heart, receives Him who sent Me (in that same way).

One Jew was healed by Jesus and gave witness to His Power and this is what his church did for him. John 9, 34 They retorted, you were wholly born in sin - from head to foot - and do you (presume to ) teach us? So they cast him - O-U-T - T-H-R-E-E - him clear outside the synagogue.

If your church isn't in the Light and you witness of Gods Power they will do you in like manner - but this is what Jesus tells this type of church. John 9, 40 Jesus said to them, if you were blind, you would have no sin; but because you now claim to have sight, your sin remains - if you were blind, you would not be guilty of sin; but because you insist, we do see (clearly), you are unable to escape your guilt.

W H Y - A R E - Y O U - OFFENDED? - AT GODS PERFECT GIFTS?

AH, How it must grieve Our Master
As with loving arms outstretched
He bestows His Gifts upon us
But His gifts, We Do Reject

It's not the dispensation age
The deluded groaners cry
Then when God moves in a Mighty way
They scream, Rog wash , It's all a Lie!

They also say, God does not heal
As in the days of yore
That miracles are not for real
And Spiritual Gifts they do abhor

But believe me Dear Ones when I say
That God still works in a mighty way
I saw Him Heal the lame, the blind
And then He saved this soul of mine!

So, Do not be offended
At any of His gifts
They will make our burdens lighter
And will give our hearts a lift

Then our Dear Heavenly Father
Who gives His Love so free
Will fill us with the Holy Ones
What a Blessing that will be

In the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ of Nazareth

Love Forever More

Pickets march outside courthouse.

Evangelists Picket Jack Ruby's Trial

A statewide evangelist team picketed the Jack Ruby murder trial today.

Edwin Tiesman, 38, who marched with his wife outside the Main Street entrance of the court house in near freezing temperatures, carried a sign proclaiming:

"A person who does wrong is not a sinner. God says he is a sinner in need of Jesus."

Intensity will be a key issue in Ruby's defense.

"Psychiatry has nothing to do with this trial," Mr. Tiesman said. "We should obey every word Jesus Christ said."

James Ruby of San Antonio, the last head honcho guilty in a trial up to him to pay the penalty.

The picket said he had been one of the thousands of Christians who volunteered at Chicago anti-communism 25 years' old who had carried religious placards at the Washington Civil Rights March, a New York and at the New Orleans Mardi Gras celebration.

Mrs. Tiesman said she and her husband were just driving to show what even one needs in Jesus.

She said they were affiliated with no particular denomination.

Mr. Tiesman said he and his wife were originally from Shreveport, La., but had traveled extensively. He said they were presently living at the home of a "Christian woman" in Dallas.

Dear Jack,

This is just a note to tell you that some one who lives a long way away and whom you have never met is in your corner pulling for you. I know you are a good man and I wish the very best for you.

This afternoon on the television I heard that your Ratti and your sister come to see you every day. I am glad they do. I am sure you have a wonderful sister.

Again, I send a lot of love people are for you and hoping for you

Sincerely

Dear Jack,

I just received your letter and I am so very glad to hear from you. I hope you are feeling well.

Please don't worry about me, Jack, or anything. I do not make my own decisions, now, and also withstand any consequences which might result from them. You were always so good to me and I won't let you down, now. I am proud to be your friend and I don't care if it is shouted to the world. If only everyone had known

you before this occurred.
I still find it impossible to believe that the past has so changed. I'll must always try to make the most of the future.
I won't abandon the one person in the world
I trusted and confided in.

Remember how we dined by the boat and talked? I think of you a great deal, yet,
and will always remember
how I believed in you.
And how you always had the right answer to my problems.

As to the Curtis question,
I will explain when I see you must intend to be present, if possible, at the time.

Maybe I can afford you a little moral support
I suppose I shall go for now. But please take care of yourself
as you always did.
Remember me, Jack,
and if there is anything
I can do please don't hesitate to ask.

With love,

Dear Mr. Ruby,

You have been much in my thoughts and prayers since November 24th, when first we saw your name in the newspapers and heard it in the news on the radio and television. Although I do not know you, the Lord spoke to me to write you a note of encouragement. Although the act you committed cannot be recalled, it is now in the past. The Lord still loves you and He wants you to repent of this deed and He will be willing to forgive you. All you have to do is recognize that you are a sinner, ask Him for forgiveness and He will save you.

It made me happy to hear that you are reading the Bible since this event took place. Maybe you had to come to this before you would turn to God, and I do not know.
Since I have been a Christian,
Jesus Christ, my Lord and Savior, has never left me down. He is a faithful friend who sticketh closer than a brother. I know I could not live without Him.
I believe He is coming back some day soon to take those who have accepted Him home to heaven to live eternally with Him. On the other hand, those who reject
Him will be separated from Him.

3 eternally, and spend an endless eternity in Hell, in torment.
It isn't worth having a little pleasure living in sin while this earth stands. The Bible tells us in John 3:18 — He that believeth on him is not condemed: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. Also in John 3:16
we read: For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

What could be more simple than to have faith and believe

4
that He is the Son of God,
and the Saviour of the world.
We can only have inner peace and joy by allowing Him to come into our hearts and lives. When we think of it, which is more important, to live a life of sin and spend an eternity in Hell, or open our hearts to Christ, and spend an endless eternity with Him in heaven? I hope you will make the wise decision to become a follower of Jesus instead of Satan. It will be worth it all to live for Christ. He will be returning soon for His faithful children.
With prayer,

March 9, 1966

Dear, Mr Ruby

I really these are trying days for you, and it would take a great Hercules to withstand the hammering on of a person's thoughts, from the time his ancestors did or didn't do some darn thing. Jack Ruby - I think you were the one who did what there had to be done, at the exact second that it had to be done.

There has been a small rift in my few remaining relatives' <sup>own</sup> feelings regarding it - But, thank God. Everyone to his own. My sister who is - oh - some darn thing - Regent in American Colonists, and Colonial James of Early America, also of Daughters of the American Revolution DAR, she is on the podium reading the Bible, etc. There are people who like to preach - and there are nice quiet people who know, without joining a fancy dress group. (with lunch included)

Yes, the world is beautiful from where I sit - the garden is green & full of most any color kind of "plain" flowers and shrubs. An acacia tree is yellow, in the way of a gorgeous view of the city of Santa Barbara - and the Riviera beyond. I am in a narrow canyon, with a tall eucalyptus grove on one side and a range on the other, with a small pasture up at the end of this dead-end lane, - - - horses and new colts, now that it is spring. Foxes were after my tracahua - also lovely raccoons & possums a month or so ago. Got so wild I talked to the County Hunter, as I had  $\frac{1}{2}$  a sweet tiny white Chihuahua, bow-legged, short-legged, with one brown patch over one eye. To snarl for words, and he wasn't safe out after dusk, w. C. Hunter trapped 5 foxes - etc. etc. Almost unbelievable when I am only 5 blocks from a stopping district.

Yes I lost my pup, and as he was my only little guy - I have been broken up.

I wish I had your Mr. (San Francisco) Belli, and maybe Barney Ross - and You to help me.

The City just decided to take my precious one-of-a-kind property for a cross-town free-way. And the price they offered was about 1/3 (rd) of its amazing location with view and its complete privacy - plus a small but built-to-forever type of home. Built to my specifications. I am 60 - Not too well, and limp like hell - but I drive an old Packard and once back when you were a mere boy, I was the sportiest girl in the Thirteen Western states, ~~though~~! Well - they didn't have many beauty contests in those days, but it was the Denver Post that said so. And Mom and little Mildred went to San Francisco etc etc. I love S.F. and lived in Ukiah - & worked for Attorney Hale McCowen, whom Mr. Belli ~~was~~ no doubt cognizant of. After ~~his~~ McCowen's wife died, he looked me up - and we became close companions travelling the gold rush country, attending Bar Association meetings - & nearly being married - except he had two grown children bigger than I was.

So I gave me this and another place here & sent him. And one of his 600 percent long letters said he had made a will, & I would always have something to live on.

Gov. Warren - at that time appointed him as Superior Court Judge of Merced County, Northern California. When he finally finished 1 1/2 terms as Judge he retired to travel the world. I had broken my knee & could not keep up with the travel involved. He spent time in Africa big game shooting. His sister & her daughter's husband being with & in the American Govt Employ. But part of a year there and around the world was too much for him and much sooner he was on his way back to me & quiet life, & after the Stanford game with his family he dropped dead. This son, who is also an attorney (Stanford) decided to destroy the Will

City Engineer Mr. Mc Cartolena gave me the papers and his car. said that Monday yesterday he would put my place in escrow & I had the balance of 30 days to protest, get an appraiser, and atty, etc.
I cant do all these things - I also refuse to My comment would be appreciated.

the book you suggested. But it was "out".

and claim all as next of kin.
I was too alone, lame & broken hearted to protest, but I still have his direct request

Now the City wants this heavenly place at $13,000 — 1/3rd of its value, if I wanted to sell; and I do not. I positively refuse!

So please send Mr Bell, Mr Ross. etc etc because when they bring that tractor and big ball to crash over this home — I'll be ready for a goodbye.

They can't do that;
but they will. — unless —

This is a hell of a letter, Jack Ruby in view of your own present problem.

With the help of Mrs Bell — we may

I know you must like it too
